

PRESIDENT ADVANCES RAILWAY STRIKE CRISIS

LAYS SITUATION BEFORE CONGRESS--- RECOMMENDS LEGISLATION

Next Developments Depend on Whether Legislation Can Be Passed and Whether If Enacted It Will Be Effective to Prevent Strike Called for Monday—President Continues Efforts to Bring the Two Sides to an Agreement.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—President Wilson laying the railway strike situation before congress today with recommendations for legislation, advanced the crisis to a stage where the next developments depend upon two points. They are:

Whether the legislation he proposes can be passed.

If enacted will it be effective to prevent a strike already called for seven a. m., Sept. 4th.

Neither of these questions can be answered tonight.

Brotherhood Men at Loggerheads.

The brotherhood heads, themselves announcing their intention to fight certain portions of the president's program, are at loggerheads over whether its enactment would prevent the strike. The railway presidents favorably to President Wilson's plan in the main, think it would make it difficult for the strike to begin.

Meanwhile, altho negotiations between the employers and men were broken off today by the rejection of the railway presidents latest proposal for arbitration, President Wilson is continuing his efforts to bring the two sides together on some form of agreement. Efforts which might well be described as almost superhuman are being exerted to that end tonight.

When the brotherhood leaders this morning rejected the latest proposal of the railroads and definitely set the strike for Labor Day, without further notice, President Wilson decided to lay the whole situation before congress.

Wilson's Plan of Legislation.

Before a joint session of house and senate and with a solemn recital of the distress a disastrous strike would bring to the country, the president proposed a plan of legislation. This is the proposal in his own language:

First—Immediate provision for the enlargement and administrative re-organization of the interstate commerce commission along the lines embodied in the bill recently passed by the house of representatives and now awaiting action by the senate; in order that the commission may be enabled to deal with the many great and various duties now devolving upon it with a promptness and a thoroughness which are with its present constitution and means of action practically impossible.

Second—The establishment of an eight hour day as the legal basis alike of work and of wages in the employment of all railway employees who are actually engaged in the work of operating trains in interstate transportation.

Third—The authorization of the appointment by the president of a small body of men to observe the actual results in experience of the adoption of the eight hour day in railway transportation alike for the men and for the railroads. Its effects in the matter of operating costs, in the application of the existing practices and agreements to the new conditions, and in all other practical aspects, with the provisions that the investigators shall report their conclusions to the congress at the earliest possible date, but without recommendation as to legislative action; in order that the public may learn from an unprejudiced source just what actual developments have ensued.

Fourth—Explicit approval by the congress of the consideration by the interstate commerce commission of an increase of freight rates to meet such additional expenditures by the railroads as may have been rendered by the adoption of the eight hour day and which have not been offset by administrative re-adjustments and economies, should the facts disclosed justify the increase.

Would Amend Mediation Statute

Fifth—An amendment of the existing federal statute which provides for the mediation, conciliation and arbitration of such controversies as the present, by adding to it a provision that in case the methods of accommodation now provided for should fail, a full public investigation of the merits of every such dispute shall be instituted and completed by fore a strike or lockout may lawfully be attempted.

Sixth.—The lodgment in the hands of the executive of the power in case of military necessity to take control of such portions and such rolling stock of the railways of the country as may be required for military use and to operate them for military purposes with authority to draft into the military service of the United States such train crews and administrative officials as the circumstances require for their safe and efficient use.

Immediately after the president had delivered his recommendations congress set about to see how they might be enacted into law.

The senate interstate commerce committee, which has before it bills prepared to carry out the plan, did not get a quorum and will meet tomorrow morning. The house leaders announced their intention of waiting on the senate's action.

Tonight President Wilson had a conference in Speaker Clark's room at the capitol. Besides the president and the speaker, the conferees included Republican Leader Mann, Democratic Leader Kitchin, Representative Sterling of Illinois, the ranking Republican of the house interstate commerce committee and Representative Adamson, the chairman. No definite conclusions were reached.

Hopes Men Will Rescind Order

President Wilson confided to advisers tonight his earnest hope that the brotherhoods, recognizing the fairness with which he has treated them would yield to his request that, pending action by congress they rescind their strike order. He asked the leaders to do so at their conference last night, but they refused flatly, saying they had not the power.

President Wilson takes the position that in view of his recommendations to congress the brotherhoods have nothing to gain and much to lose if they carry out their strike order, because he believes under such circumstances public opinion will stand against them.

The president intends to use all his influence to hasten action in congress but should there be delay he intends to appeal to the patriotism of the leaders and their duty to the public not to persist in calling the strike at this time.

With the issues now set forth before the country the president expects the public to make known to the brotherhoods its opposition to a strike regardless of the merits of the controversy.

Railways Prepare for Strike.

Meanwhile the railway heads prepared themselves for a strike. Orders not to accept perishable freights for shipments were issued by many lines; notices were issued to prospective passengers that unless they could complete their journeys before seven o'clock Monday morning they would risk delays.

Many of the railway presidents left for their headquarters announcing they considered it necessary to be near their properties. The managers conference committee which has full authority to deal with the workmen, remained here. Brotherhood committee men who had not already departed hurried away announcing their intention to be in their home districts Monday. Only Presidents Garretson, Stone, Carter and Lee, heads of the conductors, engineers, firemen and trainmen, respectively remained here. They announced their intention of directing the strike from Washington.

Both sides issued what appeared to be their last statements to the public in justification of their acts.

The railway presidents summarized the important points developed by their deliberations, as follows:

"A renewed insistence upon the principles of arbitration as the only proper method of settling labor disputes.

"The railroads have given the employees every possible consideration in this respect by offering to arbitrate their differences either thru the interstate commerce commission under the Newland's act or by a commission to be selected by the president of the United States.

"An increased realization of the

KING FERDINAND TO COMMAND ARMY

Report Roumanian Monarch Has Gone to Front to Direct Troops

AUSTRIANS WITHDRAW

Vienna Admits Advanced Detachments Have Fallen Back Owing to Strong Forces

NO CLAIM OF GREAT BATTLES

King Ferdinand of Roumania has ordered a general mobilization of his forces and is reported to have gone to the front personally to take command of his army.

The Roumanians already are reported to be making furious efforts to capture passes in the eastern Carpathians leading into Hungary, and are declared to be fighting shoulder to shoulder with Russian troops coming from Bukovina.

Vienna Admits Withdrawal

While Berlin says that Roumania's attempts to pierce the passes have been futile, Vienna admits that owing to a "far reaching encircling movement by strong Roumanian forces" Austrian advanced detachments have been forced to withdraw.

What Greece's attitude will be as a result of Roumania's joining the entente allies is still problematical, but official advices to London express the belief that she soon will throw in her lot with the entente. A pro-entente demonstration in Athens passed a resolution saying that if the people were not heard in their demand that Greece join the entente, we "must take council as to what is to be done to minimize the ruin which awaits us."

Occupation by the Bulgarians of Kavala is declared to have intensified the feelings of the Greeks, who are said to be willing to follow former Premier Venizelos in any action he may advise.

Venizelos is strongly pro-entente.

Claim No Great Battles

None of the belligerents claim any great battles. An attempt by the Germans to approach British trenches near Pozieres which was stopped by the British was the only move made by the infantry on the British lines Tuesday. There still is considerable artillery activity in this region however. Along the front held by the French, bad weather halted operations. On the eastern front from the Riga region to the Carpathians in Galicia the day passed without momentous happenings. In the Caucasus region near Lake Van the Russians have gained additional successes over the Turks.

The Serbians in the Macedonian theater are continuing their advance toward Vetenik and also have repulsed strong Bulgarian attacks northwest of Lake Ostrovo. Bombardments are proceeding in Lake Doiran region and along the banks of the Vardar river.

The Austrians are still shelling the Italian positions in the lower Isonzo region, the Upper Cordevole valley and in the valleys of the But and Fella rivers. In the Posina Valley on Monte Cimone and near the Avisio the Austrians have been forced to give further ground. Notable among the gains of the Italians is the capture of Monte Carliol at an altitude of 8,000 feet.

SANTA FE RAILROAD PLACES EMBARGO ON PERISHABLE GOODS

TOPEKA, Kans., Aug. 29.—The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway today placed an embargo on all shipments of perishable goods and livestock to take effect at once, according to a statement issued from the office of J. R. Kootz, general freight agent. The order also states the company will not take responsibility for other shipments.

At least one-third of the freight business will be cut off as one of the results of the embargo according to Mr. Kootz.

Under the heading "Perishable goods" it was explained are included fresh meats, butter, eggs, vegetables, fruits and ice. The company also refuses to be responsible for delay in other freight shipments. The order became effective thruout the system this afternoon. Many hardships will be caused by the order as it was pointed out that in the southwest many shippers have consignments of livestock and "perishable goods" ready for shipment. The order will eliminate the use of all refrigerator cars, it was stated and will directly affect melon and fruit shippers as well as stock raisers with fattened animals ready for market.

Agree On No Coerced Action

Washington, Aug. 29.—Railroad managers here said that all lines probably would take action similar to that order by the Santa Fe to protect themselves in case of a strike, but that no coerced action had been agreed upon and each road would adopt its own precautions.

CHICAGO FREIGHT HANDLERS STRIKE

WALKOUT THREATENS TO BECOME
GENERAL WITHIN 24 HOURS

Trouble Comes Just As Railway Officials Are Swamped with Transfer Traffic Sped Up Because of the Threatened Trainmen's Strike.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—Chicago, the greatest railway center in the world, fought in the face of local difficulties today to transfer thousands of cars of freight in time for the cars to reach their destination ahead of Sept. 2nd, the date declared by many western railroads tonight for an embargo on perishable freight.

A strike of freight handlers in the local yards of several railroads which threatened to become general within twenty-four hours hit Chicago just at the time railway officials were swamped with transfer traffic, sped up because of the threatened trainmen's strike.

By vote of the International Brotherhood of Freight Handlers local unions tonight it was determined to call a general strike at noon tomorrow of all freight handlers in Chicago, numbering about 6,000 unless concessions demanded from the employers are granted before that hour. Approximately fifteen hundred men quit work yesterday and today. The question at issue is not higher wages but right of the unions to collect dues from the members at their places of employment.

The twenty-seven railway lines entering Chicago, this number being exclusive of different divisions of the same roads, are hurrying to handle an enormous amount of freight east and west within the next week. The embargo on perishable freight, railway officials said will principally affect livestock.

Exceptionally heavy receipts of hogs, cattle and sheep at the Chicago, Kansas City, East St. Louis and other markets are anticipated before the embargo becomes effective.

While railroads are striving to prepare for the strike, manufacturers of the middle west gathered in Chicago in an eleventh hour attempt to find some means of avoiding it. At a conference called by the Illinois Manufacturers' association and attended by representatives of smaller associations from many states, resolutions were introduced urging that President Wilson insist on the principle of arbitration. A committee will go to Washington to present the resolution to the president.

Chicago's freight yards today were scenes of extraordinary activity. Preparations were made to handle every single carload of freight cars between now and the date set for the threatened strike, Sept. 4th.

At the same time, railway officials laid plans to operate trains with non-union men or non-strikers with in the railway brotherhoods' membership, in event of a strike. Some of the officials said they would operate twenty-five percent of the regular traffic out of Chicago from the minute a strike was declared and could build up this service until it was practically normal within thirty days.

The manufacturers' associations representing fourteen states, determined to send the committee of nineteen to Washington immediately with the resolution which is a protest against surrender of the principle of arbitration and a plea for a definite and permanent arbitration arrangement to safeguard the public from industrial disorders in the future. It was announced that the vote on adoption of the resolution was unanimous. It sets forth that the country is facing a crisis, because a few leaders representing classes of railroad employees have declined arbitration of their demands.

"Even the temporary loss and suffering caused by a strike is preferable to the abandonment of the great principle of arbitration," the resolution says. "Upon it rests the welfare of the people, laborers as well as employers, consumers as well as producers. We therefore indorse the insistence upon arbitration by railway executives and appeal to the president, the congress and the people of the United States to firmly support the principle of arbitration strike or no strike."

The committee is expected to reach Washington Friday and will advise the president immediately upon its arrival. The committee includes S. M. Hastings, chairman, Illinois Manufacturers' association; D. E. Felt, Illinois Manufacturers' association; Nathaniel French, Davenport, Iowa; Herman Heteler, president of the Lumbermans' association; T. M. Sechler, Moline, Ill.; Eugene Adams, Dubuque, George Wright, secretary Iowa Manufacturers' association.

Police Chief Healy today issued orders cancelling all furloughs of members of his force and recalling all members who are on furloughs.

ARMORED CRUISER MEMPHIS WRECKED

Warship Swept on Rocks By Heavy Sea in San Domingo Harbor

WILL BE TOTAL LOSS

Twenty Men Returning to Ship from Shore Leave in Motor Boat Are Drowned

EXPECT TO SAVE ALL ON BOARD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Rear Admiral Pond at San Domingo City cabled the navy department tonight that the armored cruiser Memphis swept upon the rocks by a heavy sea in the harbor there today, would be a total loss and altho it was expected all on board would be saved, twenty men returning to the ship from shore leave in a motor boat had been drowned.

The admiral's despatch follows:

"Memphis driven ashore by heavy sea, San Domingo City, west of light-house, at 4:30 p. m. She is lying close under bluff. Has lines ashore and is getting crew off. Heavy sea came up suddenly and ship was unable to get up steam in time to save herself. Twenty men of liberty party drowned on way back to ship. Castine (Gunboat) dragged close in but did not strike and got out to sea. No other casualties known. Memphis will be total loss. Expect to save everybody on board."

The United States Cruiser Memphis formerly was the Armor Cruiser Tennessee. Her name was changed May 25th last. Recently she has been doing duty in San Domingo waters in connection with the revolution.

The Memphis is of 14,500 tons and has a horse power of 23,000. Her complement is 39 men. She is the flagship of the cruiser force of the United States Atlantic fleet.

Captain E. L. Beach commands the Memphis. Other officers on board include Lieutenant Commander Y. S. Williams, Lieut. T. Withers, Jr., Lieut. C. A. Jones and Junior Lieutenants H. C. Shonover, W. J. Carver, F. L. Shea, J. L. Kerley and H. J. Pierce; Ensigns, E. M. Steece, J. H. Rockwell, M. J. Walker, R. T. Darrow, D. D. Dupre, and H. M. Meyers; Passed Assistant Surgeon J. D. Mears, Passed Assistant Surgeon C. E. Robertson, Dental Surgeon R. Barber, Passed Assistant Paymaster K. C. McIntosh, acting Chaplain C. V. Ellis and First Lieutenant of Marines H. D. Shepherd.

With Theodore Roosevelt, James R. Garfield, Raymond Robins and Harold Ickes traveling through the central states in advocacy of Charles E. Greater Fire Protection, Less Cost

The efforts put forth in the past to secure motor driven equipment for the Jacksonville fire department have not been successful. There is no argument but that the addition of such equipment would add very greatly to the efficiency of the fire department and so improve the production afforded to the people. Records kept in Springfield show that motorization of the fire department, in addition to furnishing improved service, has reduced the cost of maintenance. For the year ending recently the total cost of maintenance for a fire engine was $131.47. In the past year it has been necessary to keep four horses for this work and the average cost of maintaining them has been $960. As with a great many other investments, the first cost for motor driven fire equipment seems large but the outlay is amply justified by the results.

Taft and Politics

Former President Taft, according to a newspaper dispatch, declared that Chicago convinced him that he is out of politics. The former president walked four blocks thru the downtown streets and made one purchase in a store apparently without being recognized. In State street with hundreds of thousands of people passing during the busy hours, even the Kaiser might sometimes pass unnoticed, but people will agree with the former president that he is out of politics and that temperamentally he is not fitted for political leadership. They will agree, too—that large numbers of them will—that Mr. Taft is a strong, brainy man of great judicial ability and in many ways one of the biggest men who have ever held the presidential chair, although lacking in the faculty of acquiring great popularity with the people.

Republican 42-Centimeter.

The Republican campaign managers insist that when Col. Roosevelt lets loose his first campaign speech in Maine, on August 31, the Democrats will feel as the French did the first time a 42-centimeter shell fell in their midst. They declare that if there has been observable some measure of the judicial reserve still clinging to the speeches of Mr. Hughes, there will be no lack of dynamic force about the statements of the former chief executive and they confidently predict that from the time Col. Roosevelt goes into action, President Wilson and his Democratic phalanx will be constantly on the defensive. Definite information regarding Col. Roosevelt's speech, aside from the fact that it will constitute a review of the Wilson administration, is not yet forthcoming but

MOUNTAIN AIR

Dried up and baked by windswept plains, too long unvisited by rains, to me the mountains called; and I indorse the mountain air, which tones the nerves, restoring hair to heads that long were bald. When I to Colorado came, so many ailments racked my frame, that life was but a grief; I had hay fever and a cold, and all the dope the druggists sold afforded no relief. I had the string-halt and the heaves—none of my life were make-believes, I had ingrowing nails; I had bog spavins on my knees, but I've forgotten all disease, among these hills and vales. I walk from the roar of towns, my staff a pine-tree's branch; I blithely scale these western Alps, and play upon their snowy scaples, and ride the avalanche. The mountain air a tonic is, it makes the vital current whiz along an old gent's veins; it makes his lagging step grow bold, and makes him think he's ten years old, and banishes his pains.

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

August 30, 1773—Louis St. Ange de Belleville, commandant of Post Vincennes, issued a statement asking that the cessions of land granted by him to the French settlers, be accepted by the British, even though there were no papers to show adequate titles.

It is intimated that it will deal largely with "How Wilson kept us out of war." Senator Root is also rated a 42-centimeter gun by the Republican managers, and is preparing addresses to be delivered when the campaign actually opens up.

The State's Strong Box.

It is not too strong a term to say that Andrew Russel is an ideal candidate for the office of state auditor, for which he is now seeking nomination on the Republican ticket. It is fitting that he should seek this office because his training through a long period of years has fitted him for this very line of work. The auditor's office requires a man with a wide knowledge of business and finance, a man who understands the state's business in general and in detail and with a man of the highest integrity and stability of character. Mr. Russel measures up to all these qualifications. He has a thorough grasp on state affairs. He has definite ideals of public service, and to use an old phrase but one which is by no means worn out, believes sincerely that a public office is a public trust. The auditor's office—that is, who fills it—is a matter of great importance to the taxpayers. Money cannot leave the state's strong-box without the action of the auditor, and it is his first and greatest duty to see that no money is paid out improperly. The state's affairs would be in competent, honest, efficient hands if Mr. Russel is chosen to the office of auditor.

Cubans Believe in Preparedness.

The Republic of Cuba which boasts a navy of twenty ships, is about to have an up-to-date naval academy for the training of her cadets in seamanship and sea fighting. The new naval academy, which is to be opened for the reception of its first class next week, is located at Mariel, a little seaport about 25 miles west of Havana where the bay is large enough for such purposes and where other shipping is not sufficient to interfere. The celebrated Rubens Palace, built by the former New York lawyer who helped work out Cuba's legal tangles for the New York Junta during the revolutionary days, is to serve as the main edifice of the new school. Cuba desires to have several officers of the United States navy among her instructors, and President Menocal has requested President Wilson to furnish them. He is anxious to have American naval officers for two branches especially submarine and artillery. She does not boast a submarine yet in her fleet, but it is the present plan to purchase one or more of the under-sea craft in the near future.

Some New York Laws.

A score or more of the measures enacted into law at the recent session of the New York legislature go into effect tomorrow. Among the most important of the new statutes are those relating to marriage and annulment. One of them makes it a misdemeanor for a minister or magistrate to solemnize a marriage when either of the parties is known to him to be under the age of legal consent, or to be an idiot or insane person. Another makes it a misdemeanor for a person having a husband or wife living to take out a marriage license to marry another.

Other of the new laws of more or less general interest are those prohibiting the selling, carrying or use of firearm silencers, prohibiting the depositing of slugs or mutilated coins in slot machines, prohibiting the throwing on public roadways of broken glass, tacks or other substances which might injure an animal or puncture an automobile tire, and making it a misdemeanor for railroads to employ in or about the railroads to employ any engineers or other employee who is unable to speak and understand the English language.

—makes hearty food for hungry appetites. Lowers bills, too.

The keenest appetite yields to thick tender slices of sweet wholesome Zephyr bread. Spread with butter Zephyr bread is the greatest muscle-building, energy-producing food you can eat.

No other food is so nourishing, so digestible, so healthful. Yet Zephyr bread costs but a tenth as much as meat, a fourth as much as cheese or a third as much as potatoes. It is the most economical of all foods.

Bake more Zephyr good things. You've never had such delicious bread, such flaky pies as you can always make from

ZEPHYR FLOUR

It's ground from the finest hard wheat. That's why it makes the best bread. It's wheat is chemically analyzed. So your baking turns out the same every time. It makes more bread, hence is more economical than flours costing less. Why bother along with other flour when this store will refund your money if Zephyr isn't the best you've ever used.

BUSINESS MEN TO VISIT TALLULA

During the chautauqua held in this city several Tallula business men visited the city, attended some of the sessions and extended a cordial invitation to Jacksonville to visit their chautauqua. Jay Rodgers, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce has considered the matter and decided that it would be an excellent plan for a number of Jacksonville business men to attend the chautauqua in a body.

Today is the day set for the visit and those who do not drive in cars will leave on the 1:55 C. & A. and return by the same route at 4:05 or 11:27. ### REV. WALTER E. SPOONTS REFUSES CALL OF PETERSBURG CHURCH

Turns Down Good Offer by Menard
County Congregation When Members of Northminster Church
Make Unanimous Request for Him
To Remain.

The Rev. Walter E. Spoonst has sent to Petersburg his refusal to accept a call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church there and has made known his intention to remain in Jacksonville as pastor of Northminster church.

Two attempts have been made by the Petersburg church to secure Mr. Spoonst, who has filled the pulpit on various occasions, has held meetings in Menard county and who has a large acquaintance also thru several summer visits to the chautauqua at Old Salem. The offer several years ago was declined by Rev. Spoonst and when the pastorate again became vacant a more urgent appeal was sent and a better offer was given the popular pastor of Northminster church. Mr. Spoonst consulted with the church membership and so strong was the sentiment against his going that he definitely decided not to accept the offer.

Mr. Spoonst's work in Jacksonville has been of the most efficient and helpful kind and his decision to stay will cause general satisfaction. He had done much to increase the church membership, has reduced the church debt from $17,000 to $5,000 and has worked, not for the success of church activities only, but for every movement redounding to the betterment of the community.

responsibility of the railroads toward their other employees, the shippers, the industrial, commercial and general public, which they have been made to feel by thousands of telegrams insisting upon the maintenance of their position."

Brotherhood Opposes Plan.

The Brotherhood expressed their unalterable opposition to President Wilson's plan to compel public investigation in a statement signed by Garretson, Stone, Carter and Lee, which said:

"Since the abolition of slavery no more effectual means has been devised for insuring the bondage of the working man than the passage of the compulsory investigation acts of the character of the Canadian industrial disputes act."

The issue of these two statements was the formal announcement of the final positions of two great forces, immovable and still deadlocked after two weeks of intercession and negotiated by the president of the United States. The day's developments fairly tumbled over one another. President Wilson having heard that the strike had definitely been set for Labor Day and anticipating that the brotherhood heads would reject the latest proposal of the railway presidents worked practically all night on his address to congress.

At 10 o'clock in the morning the railway presidents asked for an audience at the White House and the president keeping his cabinet waiting an hour, received them. Secretary Tumulty meanwhile delivered to the brotherhood heads the latest proposal that the men accede to an investigation permit the interstate commerce commission practically to impound the pay the men would receive if they won their demands, and let the men decide at the end of the investigation whether to strike or arbitrate. It was promptly and perfunctorily refused by the leaders.

The railway presidents then reverted to the position they assumed at the outset of the negotiations and issued their statement to the public.

President Wilson, realizing that their latest proposal would not be accepted by the workers told the railway executives he was sorry it had been presented and bade them good bye, saying: "God help you. I cannot."

Will Fight Wilson's Proposal.

The brotherhood heads having knowledge of the president's proposal for compulsory investigation announced their intention to fight it in congress and if possible to get separate votes on that and the eight hour day proposal which they favor, hoping to beat the former and enact the latter into law. Generally they expressed satisfaction with the president's address feeling that it hit the railroads harder than it did them.

Altho the railway presidents feel that in the face of President Wilson's suggestion for legislation the employees cannot afford to strike, they have not overlooked any element of preparation for the strike order.

Provision has been made to police every mile of track and yards of all the great eastern systems where the brotherhoods are particularly strong. No general agreement was reached today on the question of embargoes. With varying conditions each road was expected to act for itself.

The roads will fight a strike individually and not collectively. Many of them the executives declare will run more than fifty percent efficient, particularly on several western lines where there is a personal sense of loyalty to the management or where the proposal to strike was not encouraged and not supported so strongly as on some eastern roads. What percentage of their trains the eastern roads can operate is guess work. At one time there was a plan to operate only 50,000 miles of the 240,000 or more in the United States for traffic on main arteries north, south, east and west. It was abandoned, however, because it was pointed out that the sympathy of the public and its support of the railroad position might depend to a large degree on the train service and the capacity of the roads to continue to transport the necessities of life.

IN JUSTICE COURT

The suit in Justice Coons' court Tuesday morning of W. C. Delaney vs. James E. Rawlings and wife resulted in a verdict in favor of Mr. Delaney. Mr. Delaney had filed a suit for damages for forcible detainer when he was arrested for not paying his board bill. The case grew from a misunderstanding in regard to the payment of a bill. Five days were allowed by the court for an appeal.

Mrs. Elizabeth Harriet Ratekin, widow of William Ratekin, a former mayor of Jacksonville, passed away Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at her home, 421 West College avenue. Mrs. Ratekin was stricken about three years ago. Advancing years hastened her malady as Mrs. Ratekin at the time of death had passed her 88th birthday.

Elizabeth Harriet Barr was born in New York state. She came to Illinois as a girl and for many years she was prominently identified with the social and civic life of Jacksonville. Her husband was for some time superintendent of the city water works, was township trustee and held other offices in the gift of the people, in addition to the office of mayor, to which he was elected in 1871.

No arrangements for the funeral have as yet been made.

Save a Sifting

THE test of a cake is lightness, and with ordinary flour your only hope is in frequent siftings.

This is what makes Roxane Flour invaluable—your cake will be light, perfect in grain, with lots of extra sifting saved. Once or twice is sufficient.

The reason is in the grain itself—soft, extra fine, grown especially for fastidious cake-makers. Roxane is light because of our special process. Extra care, extra work on our part, means less trouble for you.

A trifle more than ordinary flour,
but it's success
with that big cake worth an extra

Rev. F. T. Spruill.

Since the organization of the society much good work has been accomplished for the cause of foreign missions and in so doing many at home have been interested in the great work.

Mrs. Jane A. Swain, one of the charter members, was spared until the reorganization was announced, an active, wide awake member at all regular meetings having the last two held in her own home in 1907. Since that time no monthly meetings have been held but the members have paid district dues and given liberal donations. Mrs. Swain was a member of the literary committee at the last meeting in her home.

God called His aged saint to her long reward May 11, 1916. She has long been a mainstay in Hebron church, never absent from church or Sunday school or any other service whenever health permitted her attendance.

Since the first organization the following members have gone to their reward: Mesdames Elizabeth Breckon, W. F. T. Spruill, Mary Fox, J. A. Trotter, Mattie Hopper, J. R. Waggoner, Samuel Jumper, J. R. Brown, J. M. Walter, Abbie Harshax, Charles Belatti, J. T. Hickman, Sarah E. Benton, and Miss Mary Maddox.

Of the honorary members, two have died, J. A. Trotter and Rev. Vickerman Breckon.

All those mentioned were earnest workers in the missionary cause.

Mrs. Jennit Fox was elected the first president and served several terms very acceptably. Mrs. B. D. Hickman, Mrs. B. D. Wiley, Mrs. Alvin Taylor, Miss Emma D. Swain, Miss Sarah J. Swain, also served as presidents.

Dec. 15th, 1883, Mrs. Elizabeth Breckon was made a life member of the society.

The first anniversary was held at the church, Sunday evening, Dec. 18, 1883.

May, 1886, Mrs. E. T. Fox and Mrs. Jane A. Swain were made life members of the society.

June 2, 1887, Mrs. Robert Hunter was made a life member.

Sept. 1, 1887, Mrs. W. W. Crane, Mrs. G. R. Swain and Miss Hannah were made life members.

Following are the names of the pastors of the church since the society was organized.

Rev. W. F. T. Spruill, 1882-4.
Rev. T. D. Weems, 1884-6.
Rev. A. M. Danley, 1887-90.
Rev. A. H. Reat, 1891-2.
Rev. S. W. Balch, 1893-6.
Rev. A. L. Plowman, 1900-2.
Rev. Nathan English, 1903-6.
Rev. B. D. Wiley, 1906-7.
Rev. W. M. Carter, 1908-13.
Rev. H. L. Cusic, 1912-4.
Rev. C. H. Davis, 1915.

Three of these are passed to their reward, Brothers Weems, Reat and Poe. (Brother J. P. Dimmitt was pastor for a time but died in 1895).

Various ways of getting money have been tried by the society, but the one that seemed most successful was an annual chicken fry given in the fall.

During the years since the first organization there have been six presidents, only two of whom have passed away, Mrs. Spruill and Mrs. J. T. Hickman. During its life the auxiliary has given $2659 to the mission cause.

Reorganization

Tuesday, May 16, 1896, the ladies of Hebron church held a meeting at the church for the purpose of reorganizing the society which for several years have held no regular meeting, but have kept up their duties. Rev. C. H. Davis, pastor, was chairman and the following officers were elected:

Mrs. R. W. Robinson, president.

Mrs. George R. Stice, first vice president.
Mrs. J. C. Swain, second vice president.

Miss H. M. L. Jumper, recording secretary.

Miss Sarah J. Swain, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. G. R. Swain, treasurer.

All except the president and first vice president were retained from the old list of officers as the regular time for election is Sept. 4. The day of meeting was changed from the first Thursday to the first Tuesday of each month. The first monthly meeting to be held at the residence of Mrs. Grace C. Swain. Committee on program, Mrs. J. C. Swain, Mrs. Amos Swain.

At a meeting June 6 the following resolutions were passed:

Whereas, it hath pleased our heavenly Father to call from among us the following members of our society, Mrs. Ella F. Crane, Mrs. Thomas Waggoner, Mrs. G. R. Brown, Mrs. J. T. Hickman, Mrs. J. M. Walters, Mrs. Abbie Harsha, Mrs. J. A. Trotter, Mrs. W. F. T. Spruill and Mrs. Mattie Hopper Teale and Sarah E. Benton.

Resolved, that we submissively say, "all is well," inasmuch as we realize their loss to the society is great and will long be cherished in memory as all were loving wives and mothers whose dear ones miss them so much.

Resolved, that we tender the husbands and children our sincere sympathy in their sorrow and commend them to Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the families, also that they be placed on the records of the auxiliary.

Mrs. R. W. Robinson, president.
Miss H. M. L. Jumper, recording secretary.

Miss Sarah J. Swain, corresponding secretary.

Yes, SENSIBLE—because it's comfortable

THERE are other good tasting cigarettes. Fatima isn't the only good one. But when it comes to comfort—there is probably no other cigarette in the world quite the equal of Fatimas. Fatima's Turkish Blend is so delicately balanced that it leaves a man feeling keen and fit even after a long-smoking day. You could prove this for yourself.

Signs That European Importers Are

Not Relying Much on Chances of Russian Wheat Soon Finding Outlet Thru the Dardanelles Tend to Cause Decided Rally.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—Signs that European importers were not relying much on chances that Russian shipments might soon be finding an outlet thru the Dardanelles tended today to cause a decided rally in the wheat market here. Closing prices altogether unsettled were 2½ to 3½c net higher with Sept. at $1.43½ and December at $1.47 to $1.47½. Corn gained ½ to 1½¢ and oats ¼ to ½¢. Provisions wound up at the same as yesterday's finish to 20c higher.

Reports of serious frost damage in Canada gave the first impetus to prices but fear of a widespread railway strike while to check buyers. Corn swung upward with wheat. Except at the start, pit offerings were light. Oats derived their strength mainly from other cereals. Bulls, however, were favored by indications that the crop movement from the country was about to decrease. Higher quotations on hogs gave an upward slant to provisions. It was said meats were being bought more freely by the south.

COL. WOOD MAKES DEFENSE IN BEHALF OF REGIMENT

Declares Injustice Was Done Troops In Newspaper Article Published in Peoria.

Colonel Frank S. Wood of the Fifth Regiment has written an article for publication answering certain criticisms of the Fifth regiment which appeared in a Peoria newspaper under the heading, "Skeleton Regiments were Not Ready for Service." Colonel Wood presents a number of facts and arguments to make clear why the Fifth and Sixth regiments were not taken to the border with the other Illinois troops. Incidentally the colonel discusses efficiency and conditions of the Fifth. At the suggestion of Capt. Owen of Co. B the article is published here. Quincy, Ill., Aug. 25, 1916.

My attention has just been directed to an article, clipped from some Peoria newspaper, captioned, "Skeleton Regiments Were Not Ready for Hard Service" dated "Camp Dunne, Springfield, Ill., August 12."

The officers and men of the Fifth have, up to this time uttered no word of complaint, nor carried their cause to the people of the state by means of the public press in the face of "peanut" political jobbery and unfair and unimpartial discrimination.

The article above referred to is no doubt inspired by the same source.

Not "Skeleton Regiment"

Speaking for my own command, the Fifth Infantry is not a "skeleton regiment," as it has twelve companies of infantry (all but two of which have the required minimum strength of sixty-five enlisted men, the other two companies lacking but six and eight men respectively), a machine gun company (pronounced the best in the national guard service by a lieutenant colonel of infantry of the United States army), a headquarters company and a medical corps second to none in the service. This effectually disposes of the "skeleton regiment," so far as applied to my command is concerned.

In passing will state that this same organization was in force prior to June 1, 1916.

The writer of the above referred-to article starts out with an untruth stating that the Fifth and Sixth regiments were described by the war department as "skeleton regiments" when the call for the state militia was issued for mobilization.

Expected Fifth to Mobilize

The fact of the matter is that the war department expected the Fifth Infantry to be mobilized, included in the six regiments of infantry requisitioned by the war department from the state of Illinois, June 7, 1916.

When the mobilization order was received by the adjutant general of Illinois, the assistant adjutant general, Co. R. J. Shand, who was acting adjutant general for the moment, due to the fact that the adjutant general was in Chicago, notified local officers of the Fifth Infantry, stationed in Springfield, that the Fifth Infantry had been called for mobilization, and directed these officers to prepare.

Further, the order was issued in the adjutant general's office.

Mobilization of six regiments of infantry the original order including the Fifth Infantry. This order was destroyed, torn to bits, but is now pasted together and is ready for submission as evidence of political chicanery and jobbery of the worst sort.

As the writer of the "skeleton regiments" article, too cowardly to sign his name, so truthfully states, our legislators and townspeople protested vigorously when the efficiency of their companies was questioned six weeks ago. We are still protesting.

Fifth as Good as Any

We did know then, and we do know now, that our boys were really not fit for border service. We also know that no other organization of the national guard of the entire United States was in better condition for border service than was the Fifth regiment, which is evidenced by the fact that the Chicago Sunday Tribune stated on authority of a high military official in Texas, that at least sixty days must elapse before the national guard organization can be fitted to take their place efficiently on the firing line.

The responsibility for these conditions is always laid at the door of the officers and men of any military organization, regardless of conditions, the responsibility for which rests at the head of the military department of the state of Illinois, or of the United States.

Citing a few instances, in the first year of the present state administration the national guard organizations attending camps of instruction in the months of July and August received their pay for the same the following March and April. This occurrence provoked a state-wide controversy between the outgoing administration (Governor Deneen's) and the present administration (Governor Dunne's). As to the merits or demerits of this controversy, the national guard had nothing to do.

Regiments and company organizations are now receiving vouchers from the state treasurer for rentals, janitor service, rifle range expenses, and other incidentals authorized by the adjutant general's office, personally expended by the guard officers one year ago.

Tells of Lack of Clothing

The men of the above regiment were sent into the 1916 camp of instruction at Camp Dunne, with but few exceptions, with only one uni-

Why Col. Smith's Latest Attempt To Secure a Public Job Will Fail

Col. Frank L. Smith—"The Great Runner"—is making another feverish effort against insurmountable obstacles. People are now recognizing the vainness and weakness of this attempt.

Ask the men you know about Smith and his activities. You will hear that for years he has been engaged in unsuccessful running for office—twice for Lieutenant Governor, for Chairman of the State Central Committee, for secretary of the State Central Committee, for State Treasurer and for National Committeeman. In all he was supported by the Lorimer-Lowden-Thompson faction.

The men who know will tell you that through all these years of job hunting he has captured but three honors. First, he was a "Colonel" on the staff of Governor Tanner, purely a civilian title. Second, he managed the campaign in Illinois against Roosevelt in behalf of Taft. Progressives can hardly forgive that. Neither can Taft. Third, he became Collector of Internal Revenue for the Peoria District—certainly not an executive position. (Privately, he helped to organize the Lorimer Bank, of which he was still a shareholder when it failed).

And now he offers this meager experience to the people of Illinois, asking them to elect him Governor. Does such experience equip a man for the governorship? Compare this record with Senator Hull's 20-year fight for social betterment and his 10-year official record—energetic, progressive, efficient. All know just what Hull has accomplished—it is a matter of public record and public pride.

Hull has the support of forward-looking Republicans. The Progressive Committee of Cook County has endorsed him. The rank and file of down-state Progressives prefer him to the two civilian "Colonels," the hazards and dangers of whose military duties related chiefly to the perils of the banquet board. The famous "Band of Hope," of which Hull was the courageous leader in their untiring efforts for new-day legislation, cast their support in each county to Hull. All over the state good government organizations are demanding Hull.

Hull will carry Cook County, for Smith has been out campaigning against Chicago. Because he opposes Chicago, Chicagoans won't support him, and so Smith's former backers—the Lorimer-Thompson-Lundin crowd—have swung to Lowden, who seems stronger than Smith. Smith's stronghold is Livingston County—his home—of which he has been the political boss for years. His sentiments are in harmony with those of the present Lorimer-Lowden-Lundin-Thompson faction. He opposed primary legislation, civil service legislation, the reorganization and rehabilitation of the state institutions, the taking of the employees in the state institutions out of the influence of politics and placing them upon a merit basis, and other matters form, the principal part of which being a heavy woolen shirt, and shoes which should have been long since condemned. Men, coming from a hard day's drill, with their clothing wet from perspiration, were compelled to don the same garments the next morning for another hard day's work in the hottest weather known in this locality for years.

After the first day's drill, 160 men were excused by the writer personally from drills Tuesday, August 8, because of painful, blistered feet due to misfit shoes, or shoes without soles. Organizations were plentiful that had either none or a totally inadequate supply of bed sacks and blankets. The assistant quartermaster general being appealed to, confessed his total inability to supply the needs of the commands. We were then issued approximately forty-five pair of old shoes, which had been returned to the department by the Seventh Infantry before going to the border.

With a need of some one hundred and twenty blankets, we were supplied with twelve.

Replies to Other Charges

As to the "military courtesy" and discipline" the "skeleton regiments" writer cites one instance where enlistment in a Y. M. C. A. tent failed to stand at "attention" when the "Star Spangled Banner" was sung by a quartet.

Will simply state that if our men stood at "attention" every time the national anthem was sung, whistled, or played in the various places seeking to attract soldiers, there would have been very little time for anything else.

The writer above referred to also neglected to state that over eighteen hundred officers and men were quartered in a swine shed, where officers were compelled to bunk in swine pens and company streets, rubbing elbows with enlisted men day and night. That the men might rest without being disturbed every time an officer walked thru the company streets, men, when in their quarters (hog pens), were not required to render any courtesy. Men, standing or playing in company streets were required to stand at "attention" until officers passed.

The writer welcomes at all times fair criticism, but resents anonymous scurrilous, reprehensible statements.

Will Submit More Facts

As to the facts relative to the Fifth Infantry being jobbed and discriminated against on the 17th day of June, the writer will have facts to submit later on that will substantiate the claim that, at a time when the highest patriotism of citizenship was being appealed to, high military state officials stooped to discrimination for personal political aggrandizement without cause against the Fifth Infantry, and excused their actions with the statement that "the Fifth Infantry was not recognized by the war department," which was, and is, a misstatement of facts.

The author of the "skeleton regiments" article lays much stress on the fact that for the first time in some years the post commander sent a provost guard to the city to maintain order.

This same writer neglected to state that it was not because of disorder that I, the post commander, took the step, but to forestall any possibility of disturbance. Yours respectfully,

Frank S. Wood,
Colonel Fifth Infantry, commanding.

OBITUARY.

George C. Barber, the mention of whose condition was made in our last issue, passed away last Friday morning, August 18, 1916, at the hospital at Guthrie, Okla., after a brief illness. All the immediate family were present at his last hours except one daughter, Mrs. Fred Shoemaker, of Hazen, Ark., who was sick and unable to come. Mr. Barber had been in declining health for several weeks but still able to attend to his duties at the office, until about three weeks ago, when he concluded to try the sanitarium at Guthrie, with the hopes of recuperating. He became worse immediately on entering the sanitarium and was later taken to the hospital and notwithstanding the fact that the best medical aid was obtained soon passed away.

The remains were brought to Prague for interment and funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the residence, conducted by Rev. J. M. Martin, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church here, and attended by the largest crowd ever witnessed in Prague on similar occasions. Burial services, with their usual rites and ceremonies were held under the auspices of the Masonic lodge of this city, of which he was a member of high order and good standing. It is estimated that not less than 100 cars were in the procession to the cemetery.

Geo. C. Barber, born in Morgan county, Illinois, Dec. 5, 1846, was reared on a farm and taught the lessons of industry at an early age. He received his early education in the common schools but later entered Illinois college, graduating in 1868. He taught school for awhile then engaged in farming and stock raising. Mr. Barber was twice married and two children were born to each marriage. His wife and three children survive him; Mrs. Fred Shoemaker, of Hazen, Ark.; Ensey, of Munksgo, and Avis, of Prague. His oldest son, Edward, preceded him to that better world several years ago. In 1884 he moved from Illinois to Kansas and fourteen years later moved to Oklahoma, locating at Stroud, where he engaged in the banking business. Later he returned to Illinois in 1904, came to Prague, purchasing the Dr. Ayars interest in the First National bank of which institution he was made assistant cashier and was also vice president of the First State bank. In 1907 he was appointed postmaster at Prague, which position he faithfully and efficiently filled until the time of his death.

Mr. Barber became a member of Presbyterian church when a very young man and was a firm believer and a devout and sincere worker in the Cause. He was amongst the first to help organize the Presbyterian church in Prague, held the position as elder continuously and contributed plentifully in its support, never shirking a duty to the church in any capacity.

In the death of Mr. Barber the church has lost a faithful and useful member, the town a valuable, benevolent and respected citizen, and the family a loving, devoted husband and father. His place in church, in the lodge, in society and in the home will be long and sadly missed, and to the family we extend the little we have to offer our condolence in this their sad hour of bereavement.

Mr. Barber's first wife was Miss Nannie Henry, daughter of Mr. Jesse Henry, of Woodson. She was the mother of Edward and Grace. The latter now Mrs. Shoemaker, of Hazen, Ark.

Geo. C. Barber was a member of Westminster church here, of which his father, Augustus K. Barber was an elder. Geo. C's mother was a daughter of Geo. Camp of Scott county, and one of her sisters was Mrs. S. G. Price.

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the change of life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both the change of life and the tumor and when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."

ANNUAL PICNIC AND BURGEOO
FOR CHILDREN, SEPT. 6TH.

Event Will Be Held Next Week for
All Pupils of Grades 1 to 6.

After consultation with Supt. Perrin it was deemed best to have the children's annual burgeoo and picnic at Nichols park next week, Wednesday, Sept. 6th, instead of waiting for the beginning of school as that would make the time so late. Supt. Perrin most cordially and kindly entered fully into the enterprise and tendered his assistance in every possible manner. All pupils of Jacksonville public school including the sixth grade down to the first are invited. If any older pupils, teachers and older members of the families of pupils wish to attend the same arrangements will be made as last year. Such persons will get their badges at the same time the pupils get theirs.

The starting will be as follows: all from the square except the Morton school who will take the cars at Morton avenue.
First ward, 9:00 a. m.
Second ward, 9:30 a. m.
Third and fourth wards, 10 a. m.
An endeavor will be made to permit the pupils of the Independence school to take the cars at Independence avenue.

Return at any time after dinner before 6:30 p. m.
Badges will be accepted by the street car conductors for returning persons who may get transfers if desired.

Badges must absolutely be sewed to the clothing or they will not be honored. Don't forget it.

Each person should bring a soup bowl, drinking cup and spoon. Get a shoe box, mark it plainly and it will be cared for at the park free of charge. Add a lunch if desired but enough soup to fill will be on the ground.

Boats on the lake during the day will be free to children wearing badges; careful persons will load and row them.

There will be an athletic program in charge of Professor T. P. Carter during the day.

Dinner at twelve and supper at five.

Absolutely no soup for sale on the grounds and none for anyone not wearing badges.

Every effort will be made to avoid accidents of all kinds but the management will not be responsible should any occur. Police and careful assistants will be on the ground at all times.

Badges will be distributed by teachers at the ward school buildings Tuesday next, at four p. m.

Pupils will not be permitted to sell or give away their badges to any one else. Any pupil doing this will be dealt with severely. If you get a badge and can't go return the badge to the teacher.

Open air school pupils get their badges at their building.

Isaac Watson, a veteran in his line, has been secured to make the soup.

Owing to the large assortment of fall styles of men's hats shown by Stetson Co., no dealer can carry all. It requires experience to select the most desirable styles. This you are assured of when you visit Frank Byrns Hat Store.

MR. POWELL SEEKS FACTS

HERE FOR U. OF I. HISTORY

A. G. Powell of the department of publications of the University of Illinois, was in Jacksonville Tuesday. Mr. Powell is now engaged in the work of writing a history of the University of Illinois in connection with the centennial of the state which is to be observed in accordance with elaborate plans outlined by the state commission. The first volume is to tell about "The influence of Illinois men for industrial education." The late Jonathan B. Turner was so prominently identified with the establishment of the state university and was so active in his efforts to make industrial education possible that Mr. Powell is here to look up various facts and records about Prof. Turner. Old files of the local papers will be examined and some data will be secured from private papers left by Prof. Turner and from some other sources.

The history of the University of Illinois will really be a history of educational development in the state, and no doubt it is largely for this reason that the work was planned by the centennial commission.

EASTERN CANNERY CONSIDERING LOCATION IN JACKSONVILLE

Large Company Has Decided to Place Branch in Illinois or Indiana and Representatives Have Looked Over the Ground Here.

A well established eastern canning company is looking for a location for the establishment of a branch somewhere in this state or Indiana. The paramount consideration in the location of such an industry is the ability of the soil to produce the crop required. A company representative who was recently in Jacksonville took pains to examine the soil and to ascertain as far as possible the chances for a good tomato production in this county. The company regards a bonus as a secondary consideration.

If Jacksonville and the county easily accessible to railroad points within thirty miles of Jacksonville will guarantee the necessary production, the other requisites can probably be easily met.

If the production is assured and the cannery is located here the company will pay for the vegetables used the usual prices and will send here an experienced vegetable grower and field man who will instruct growers in the best methods of cultivation and production, so that the production can be built up to the requirements of the cannery.

If established here the cannery would expect to also use cucumbers for pickles as soon as possible and would probably use any vegetables which could be profitably produced in sufficient quantities. The company's representative states that the price it will pay will justify the shipment of tomatoes up to thirty miles, and he wishes to learn of possible production near railroad stations between Jacksonville and the following points, New Berlin, Roodhouse, Waverly, Manchester, Naples, Versailles, Beardstown, Chandler, and Petersburg.

If Jacksonville is to secure this cannery and if the farmers and truck growers in this territory want this cannery, it will be necessary to guarantee production sufficient to justify the company's locating a cannery here for next season's crop and this must be done soon.

Farmers and truck growers who will grow tomatoes next year, are requested to immediately communicate with Mr. H. Jay Rodgers, Secretary, or Mr. Frank J. Heil, chairman of the department of rural affairs, of the Chamber of Commerce of Jacksonville.

BURLINGTON WAY OFFICIALS MEET AT CARTHAGE

Lack of Interest There Result in Plans to Change Route—Three Possibilities Suggested.

Carthage, Aug. 29.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the Burlington Way association held in Carthage Tuesday afternoon the question of rerouting the Burlington Way was discussed. Three routes were laid out and a final meeting will be held in Carthage Monday afternoon, Sept. 11 at 1:30 o'clock.

At this meeting three routes will be proposed to eliminate the route running at present by way of Macomb. Two of these routes will run from Carthage to Hamilton. At Hamilton one will cross the river thru Keokuk while the other will run thru Nauvoo, East Fort Madison and Fort Madison. The third one will take a direct route northward from Carthage to Fort Madison. The reason for the changing of the route is lack of interest by residents in Macomb and vicinity.

WORK BEGUN ON N. W. GYMNASIUM AT ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Building Will Be Complete Modern Structure—Swimming Pool Will Be Installed—Mr. and Mrs. Harker Lay First Bricks.

Work was begun in earnest Tuesday on the new gymnasium building at Illinois Woman's College. Early in the morning Mrs. Harker laid the first brick of the foundation and Dr. Harker followed laying the second brick. The excavating work is nearly finished and the masons are working hard.

The building will be 52x112 feet and will contain swimming pool and all modern gymnasium apparatus. In the basement will be the swimming pool which will be 26x42 feet. There will be locker rooms, dressing rooms, a ten pin alley and shower baths. Upstairs will be the large gymnasium room. There will be also on this floor the director's office, and running completely around the room will be a gallery. A stage will be built in to further the work of the expression department. In addition to this a large fire place is being built in the building so that it can be used for special purposes.

This is only one of the many steps of advancement the college has made in the last few years. Dr. Harker showed that in the last seventeen years, beginning with 1899 ten additions have been made on the campus. When the gymnasium is completed it will mark the eleventh addition to the Illinois Woman's College Campus. It is expected that the building will be entirely finished and completely equipped by Feb. 1. This will give ample opportunity for use of the building next year, as the out door work could not commence for a period of time after the opening.

WAEELY HIGH SCHOOL HAS FORMAL OPENING

COL. LOWDEN TAKES HIGH

GROUND ON GOVERNOR'S DUTIES

In Chicago Speech Candidate Explains Previous Reference to Party Leadership and Chief Executive's Post.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—Two meetings tonight in Chicago suburbs—Chicago Heights and Harvey—started Colonel Frank O. Lowden on the final fortnight rush of his campaign in Cook county. On Wednesday night he will go to the city's North Side, speaking in the twenty-second and twenty-third wards. From then on he will be busy every day up to and including the Monday preceding the primaries on Wednesday, September 13.

The Cook county meetings are in charge of the regular Republican county committee of whose membership of 41 about four-fifths are openly for Mr. Lowden in this governorship contest. William Weber, who is a power in the country districts, accompanied the colonel tonight to both Harvey and Chicago Heights, where there were enthusiastic audiences.

"I am going to give you," said Colonel Lowden, "some sort of an idea of my opinion as to the office of governor. I recently said among other things, that it was not the duty of a governor to dictate the policies of the state. I said that I had no sympathy with the modern idea, which many people hold that because a man is elected President, he becomes the head of his party nationally or that, when a man becomes governor, he becomes the head of his party within his state."

"Some people misapprehended, or pretended to misapprehend, what I meant by that. They inferred therefrom that I did not believe in the governor being an active force for progressive legislation or taking the initiative in any matter concerning the state, but favored simply drifting on in the easiest way possible."

Proper To Recommend Legislation.

"Now I am going to simplify what I said on that subject so that none of you will be under any misapprehension as to what I mean and meant. Of course I believe that the governor should take the initiative when his duty requires him. The constitution of our state expressly provides that he may recommend legislation. No doubt it is his duty to recommend at least the legislation for which his party platform has pronounced."

"But while the governor should go to the whole limit of his constitutional powers in recommending legislation or in seeing that the promises of his party platform are carried out, he is never excusable if he resorts to unconstitutional means to secure the best legislation. If I am governor of this state and a law as perfect as the Sermon on the Mount is involved, I would have no right as governor to use the appointing power, what is commonly known as patronage, either to defeat or to secure the enactment of that law. It would be just as immoral for me to put my hand in the public treasury and take out money and give it to a legislator in return for a vote as it would be to secure that legislator's vote by offering to appoint some of his friends to office."

ATTENDED FUNERAL.

Miss Mary Wagner returned yesterday from Mt. Sterling where she attended the funeral of R. B. Childers. Mr. Childers was a frequent visitor in Jacksonville and was known by many here.

A VETERAN MEMBER.

J. M. Trotter of Harbors church was present at the laying of the corner stone of the building recently torn down. He scored the sills and other framing timbers of the church. One of the sills was made of oak cut on the Uncle Watson Sinclair farm later known as the Logan Brown farm. He also had the contract for hauling the material for the structure and as the lumber was bought in the rough he assisted in planing the weather boards and material for the seats and other finishing lumber as there were planing mills nearby.

The contractor's name was Lillie and he had just completed a church at Chandlerville. Mr. Trotter hauled some of the sand from Indian creek near what was once known as the Goodall Ford, a public crossing, as there were no bridges or even a road, only a neighborhood, therefore thru the timber and heavy growth of underbrush thruout the neighborhood at that time. For the above and for the account of the auxiliary to the W. M. F. Society of the church the Journal is indebted to Miss M. L. Jumper.

TAKE AUTO TRIP

A pleasant auto-trip has been completed by Mr. and Mrs. Len G. Magill, and two children accompanied by Miss Bertha Meyer and Harry Brown. The trip which was made in a Paige car took them thru Springfield, Streator, Starved Rock, Ottawa, Aurora and Chicago. The trip was made in an easy manner and stops were made at various places. Mr. Magill reported that he averaged eighteen miles per gallon of gasoline. Morgan county roads were found to be as good as any.

Miss Alvina Duell left yesterday for her home in Bloomington after a visit with Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman of this city.
